Photo Highlights

1ST PLACE

SGT BENJAMIN M. FAVORITE

“HUES OF GREEN AND RED”

*The sun goes down and casts a hue of Green.
Through the window lay forty-five warriors, well before dusk,
Each man sleeps early laying nest to his ruck.
Long before dawn they must rise and prepare,
Their hearts filled with pride to fight for their home,
Another chance to earn a seat at Valhalla's throne.*

*As the darkness draws near the hue shines dark Red.
Now the first foe they face is in their own head.
Some read letters from home, to remember why they fight,
For they march into darkness to shine a new light.
None write home for no words can truly convey,
That on the journey back home, some may not find their way.*

*Back at home a wife awakes before dawn,
The Green hue of morning helps her mind find calm.
Alone in her bed another day apart.
A thought of her husband and his love fills her heart.
His second trip abroad, he's been there before,
She knows he'll return to be in her arms once more.*

*After breakfast all is calm in the house,
The voice on the news fills the room with a hue of Red.
More killing overseas, no names, just the number of dead.
Her face fell empty as her heart went numb,
She cursed the War and her husband's honor
As she pondered if her son still had his father.*

*Out in the yard a young boy sits and plays,
The leaves cast a hue of Green across his face.
His life is blessed, so full of love and grace,*

*Too young to understand why his dad is never home.
He knows his father stands up for those who cannot fight,
He asks God to protect him in his prayers each night.*

*In his Sunday best the boy stands among a sea of stones.
The Red hue of waving stripes catch his wandering eye.
So many have come to see his father and say goodbye.
He is confused but not scared, for he does not understand.
Through twenty-one guns he covers his face and holds his ears,
He clings to his mother as she clutches that flag soaked in tears.*

*A decade plus three has passed and the boy is all grown
His lifelong dream: to know his father and follow his path,
To serve with honor and fight for those cannot on their own.
His mother sees the heart of her husband and a tear fills her eye, He signs on the line and holds his hand high.
Now with plates in his vest and a helmet on his head, Nobody knows if his story will end in a hue of Green or Red.*

2ND PLACE

SPC KASHEEM R. BROWN

“THE HAND I WAS DEALT”

*It was never my fault-
This is the hand I was dealt.
The child inside me
was robbed of joy,
left with echoes of what could have been.*

*There is a pain within me,
a shadow that lingers,
a weight I carry each morning
as I rise to the same ache.*

*For years, I turned away,
refused to name it
this hollow, this void,
this abyss where light refused to dwell.
No hope, no purpose,
just numbness,
a cavern of discomfort,
disgust, disappointment.*

*But now,
there is a pain within me
that I no longer fear.
Each day, I wake to something different-courage to face what I once ignored.*

*I stare into the darkness,
into the depths of my own wounds,
and I see them clearly:
they are part of me,
but they are not all of me.*

*The abyss remains,
but now I know I am loved.
I am cherished.
I am held.*

*And somewhere, deep within,
the child I once was
smiles through the tears,
proud of how far I've come,
proud of the light I've found in the midst of the dark.*

3RD PLACE

SGT JOSEPH A. ALDEN

“FORGED IN GRIT”

*I'm a medic.
But, I was made where engines roar.
Grease-stained boots on the motor pool floor.
Hands that healed, hands that bled,
Fixing the field litter ambulance that saved lives instead.*

*No easy path, no calm, no rest.
Just back-to-back hardships that put me to the test.
These chevrons don't come from walking light -
From the past unit to this one,
I've earned them grinding through this endless fight.*

*Now, South Korea calls my name.
So, I respond to the stand,
Leading medics as I had planned.
Ready to build, to treat, to save.*

*Vitals checked. Rucks on backs.
IVs. Thermometers. Ice Packs.
No time to slack.*

*It's a brand new pace.
Where each patient is a new mission.
Where each training is a new hurdle.
Where each meeting brings questions.
But, regardless, we'll always care for our soldiers with grace.*

*The skills evolve, but the army heart stays true.
I heal with focus, not just the name.
From motor pool medic to clinical guide,
The journey's long, but I stand here with pride.*

*I'm now a clinical medic.
I'm a leader to my soldiers.
I'm an advisor to my officer.*
