WAQ Survey

INTRODUCTION

1. What is WAQ?

Warrior Adventure Quest (WAQ) is a Department of the Army (DA) approved and endorsed program under Executive Orders for all units.

WAQ is designed to re-create the adrenaline rush of combat action in a supervised, controlled, high adventure activity which is supervised by FMWR Outdoor recreation staff. In short WAQ is a training tool designed to introduce Soldiers to activities that serve as alternatives to potentially destructive behaviors.

WAQ instills cohesion, builds teamwork and maintains combat readiness through high-adventure activities. This program enables Soldiers to reach a “new stage of normal” by diminishing boredom and high-risk behavior, through outdoor recreation and L-LAAD. The end state is that Soldiers will be able to draw similarities between the adventure activity and their Warrior experiences.

WAQ incorporates resiliency training to help redeployed Soldiers adjust to a calmer-paced lifestyle than the one they left behind. Experts say such psychological resilience-building programs help Soldiers recognize and respond to fear during combat and mitigate the cumulative effects of a sustained deployment. It helps Soldiers mentally prepare to reintegrate during the redeployment, post-deployment and reset portions of the deployment cycle.

Finally, Soldiers who participate in WAQ are expected to incorporate team building with skills learned or reinforced during the program and walk away with a newfound passion for leisure activities that can enhance their overall quality of life.

2. Who pays for WAQ and when can I participate?

WAQ is offered at NO COST TO THE UNIT and all units are now eligible for participation. Non-deploying units can attend once every two years. Rotational units deployed in support of United States Forces Korea (USFK) may participate once during their 9-12 month rotation along with our KATUSA counterparts.

3. What is L-LAAD?

L-LAAD is the Leader-Led After Action Debrief which bridges WAQ activities with real world events.

L-LAAD is a leader's tool and is a structured way to make sense of a difficult situation to help Soldiers learn from their experiences.

L-LAAD puts emphasis on teamwork, cohesion, readiness and should be a regular part of mission planning.

L-LAAD is not an After Action Review (AAR) or Group Therapy.

4. The WAQ program has been developed into five phases

Phase I, Leader Training, is for all SSG and above participants and teaches them how to facilitate a leader-led after action debrief (L-LAAD) in response to a significant event in an operational environment.

Phase II, teaches these unit leaders how to utilize the same L-LAAD technique when facilitation surrounds an outdoor adventure activity.

Phase III, Soldier Training, presents to all program Soldier participants concepts like Comprehensive Soldier Fitness, Combat Operational Stress Control and Post Traumatic Growth, coping skills, and how it all relates to the Warrior Adventure Quest program.

Phase IV, is the outdoor adventure activity (e.g., paintball, white water rafting, climbing, etc.) Where team building is combined with challenging activity skills.

Phase V, is the actual facilitation of the L-LAAD by unit leaders with their unit members to realize connections between the activity they have just experienced and the challenges they may be experiencing in their daily lives.

5. Instructions for unit participation in WAQ

A unit designated training coordinator/NCO/Officer needs to make contact with the Camp Casey Warrior Adventure Quest Coordinator to schedule their units. WAQ Coordinator will provide the unit with a calendar of activities and potential dates for units to select from. Activities are provided at a first come first-served basis.

- Execution: Target train/ready units within 120 days of deployment, 120 days of redeployment, and units with no impending deployment (limited to 1x participation every 2 years)
- Group Size: Team, Platoon or Company Level (20 – 50)
- Activity Duration: Duration will vary depending on which activity is chosen. All activities will be held Monday thru Friday during regular duty hours.
- Current Activities Include:
 - » Paintball
 - » Bungee Jumping
 - » Water Sports and ATV Combo
 - » Zip-Lining
 - » White Water Rafting
 - » Winter Skiing & Snowboarding

6. Unit Responsibilities

- Coordinate with the WAQ Coordinator to schedule your activity and date.
- Contact and confirm that your unit will have a facilitator present for the Leader-Led After Action Debriefing (L-LAAD) Training (by name roster required).
- Conduct Soldier Training prior to attendance: Information on why the Army is providing WAQ.
- Provide a by name roster of all Soldiers participating in the scheduled activity.
- Show up at the arranged meeting location to catch the bus.
- Each Soldier will also complete a mandatory WAQ post-survey on the day of your scheduled activity. DoD ID and SSN are required for the survey. This tracks the soldiers who attend the program and for funding purposes.

7. What is Resilience?

Resilience is the ability to grow and thrive in the face of challenges and bounce back from adversity.

Unit Resiliency Fundamentals has four pillars that every Soldier needs to know:

- Horizontal Bonding: Trust between peers in a Unit
- Vertical Bonding: Trust between Leaders & the Led
- Esprit de Corps: Sense of purpose & identity in the unit
- Unit Cohesion: Binding force that combines the 3 previous concepts
